

Assignment name: Feasibility study and Project structuring of the development of Tierra Nueva wind farm in Jimani
Contract Value: USD 25,000	Duration of assignment (months): 24
Country: Dominican Republic	Location within Country: Santo Domingo
Name of Client: Comisión Nacional de la Energía - Equitao / Fasep funds	Total No. of staff-months of the assignment: 10
Contact Person, Position, Tel. No./Address:	No. of professional staff-months provided by your consulting firm/ or your sub-consultants: 2
Start date (month/year): Feb 2010	Finish date (month/year): Feb. 2012
Name of associated Consultants, if any: Equitao
Name of senior professional staff of your consulting firm/organization involved and designation and/or functions performed (e.g. Project Director/Coordinator, Team Leader): – Monique Bolmin, legal expert
Description of Project: Feasibility study, project structuring and development of a wind farm, including the assistance to the contracting authority in the drafting of tender documents and technical specifications
Description of actual services provided by your staff within the assignment: Responsible for the legal feasibility study regarding the implementation and operation of a wind farm within a concession contractual framework, including the preparation of tender documentation, the drafting of the power purchase agreement and the partnership arrangements.	